Personal Enrichment Classes

Metalsmithing and Sculpture Workshop

Students need to be enrolled in metalsmithing or sculpture class either on campus or elsewhere or have equivalent basic skills. Students will be assessed individually for their skills. In this workshop students will receive expert guidance on their projects in progress.

The Muslim World: Past, Present and Future

Interested in learning the history and basic tenets of the fastest growing religion in America? We'll present the basics and then focus on Islam as it relates to our contemporary world. By class end, you'll have a thorough understanding of this influential religion and be able to discuss its impact on global politics. An optional Mosque visit is offered.

Furniture Design and Construction

This workshop will help students develop basic technical skills with emphasis on individual design. Each student is responsible for their own wood.

Community & Continuing Education Classes

Noncredit State-Funded Courses

Community Education offers a number of non-credit classes for our community designed to meet the special needs, interests and capabilities of students who do not desire college unit credit. Although non-credit courses are based on college approved curriculum and taught by qualified instructors, they differ from credit courses in some respects. Non-credit courses are:

- FREE of charge (some classes have a small materials fee)
- Open to all students of the community without residency requirements
- Open-entry/open-exit and students may register anytime during the school year (provided that space is available)
- There are no tests, quizzes or letter grades given
- Registration is quick and easy through the Community Education department.

Currently, we offer classes in the areas of Parent Education, Older Adult Education (seniors 55+), and Basic Skills (Reading, Library Skills). Please check our class listing in this section and throughout the Schedule of Classes for non-credit class offerings.

Older Adult Program

These courses are free for seniors and offered at numerous senior centers, community centers, residential care homes, and convalescent hospitals year-round. While these courses are offered primarily for senior citizens at locations and times convenient to them, they are open to all persons.

The purpose of the program is to enable the older adult to have a better understanding of self-management. In addition, seniors are able to increase their awareness of consumer resources, improve their mobility through fitness classes, and to enrich their learning potential by participating in individual development classes.

Classes are provided under four general categories:

Art for Seniors - Art classes ranging from fine arts such as painting and history of art to classes in arts, crafts and art appreciation.

Individualized PE - Adaptive exercise are conducted for general body conditioning with a focus on the capabilities of aging.

Senior Preparedness - Classes are offered in areas such as current events and consumer resources.
